

General Proficiency 6

Across

- 5 Monoplanes with their wings attached to the middle of the fuselage.
- 6 Technically called Lighter-Than-Air Aircraft.
- 7 Planes that have two wings.
- 8 Monoplanes with their wings attached to the middle of the fuselage.
- 9 Wilbur and Orville were the first men to leave the ground in a powered heavier-than-air aircraft. They are known as the
- 11 These are planes that have retractable wheels, allowing them to operate in both water and land.
- 14 Left hand side of an aircraft
- 15 The outer control surface of the wing, controls the the aircraft in banking left and right.
- 17 The right hand side of an aircraft
- 18 Aircraft that usually have no engine.
- 19 Consists of the Fin, Rudder, Tailplane and Elevator.
- 20 In October 1957 the first satellite was launched. The name of this first satellite is in Russian, it is Russian for satellite.

Down

- 1 Known as the father of gliding, he had several hundred flights of over 100 metres. His first name is Otto.
- 2 For landing on snow or ice.
- 3 The main body of the aeroplane.
- 4 Also found on a fish and on boats, on both the animal, aircraft and boat it keeps the aircraft traveling in a straight line.
- 10 Also known as Height
- 12 Also known as Rotary-Wing-Aircraft.
- 13 A plane that is designed to land, and take off from water.
- 16 Monoplanes with their wings attached to the lower part of the fuselage.